- m) Student Residence or Residence: a shared living accommodation for students including on campus or off campus apartments linked to an Institution when recognized as such by Post-Secondary Services.

3.0 ELIGIBILITY

3.1. To be eligible and remain eligible to receive assistance under this Sponsorship Program, an applicant must:

- a) be a beneficiary of the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and its Complementary Agreements (JBNQA) within the meaning of paragraphs 3.2.4, 3.2.5 and 3.2.6² and be registered on his Community active list³;
- b) meet the educational and/or other entrance requirements of the Institution he will attend as a full-time student;
- c) have a reasonable chance of succeeding at a Post-Secondary Institution. In order to evaluate this criteria, candidates might have to do tests and interviews as required by Post-Secondary Services to assess various levels, including:
 - academic levels
 - motivation
 - second language proficiency
 - maturity and

² For corresponding excerpts of the JBNQA, see the note following section 13 of this Policy

³ However, a student who did qualify at the time of application but who loses his status during his program of study, will be entitled to finish the program he is currently enrolled in

- the overall capacity of the student to successfully complete his program of study;
- d) submit his application by March 1st for the Fall session and by November 1st for the Winter session.;
- e) accept all responsibilities and obligations outlined in this Policy by signing the Sponsorship Agreement (Annex A);
- f) not receive funding from another source for the same purpose⁴;
- g) respect the KI Code of conduct and any applicable regulations;
- h) have received final approval from the Director;

Moreover,

- i) when an applicant was previously sponsored under the Sponsorship Program:
 - i. he is deemed not eligible for at least one semester, if he has left without a valid reason, and
 - ii. he must have reimbursed any amount due (overpayment of allowances, etc.)⁵.

3.2 Part-Time Students

A student enrolled as a part-time student⁶ in a Recognized Institution may be eligible to the reimbursement of tuition fees and required books provided that:

- a) he has submitted his duly completed application form to Post-Secondary Services at least 30 days before the beginning of the course, and,
- b) the course was approved by the Department, and
- c) he has successfully completed the course.

3.3 Mature Students

A student (minimum age of 21 years old) who has not completed his secondary 5 Diploma (DES) could be eligible for sponsorship if he meets the conditions established under section 3.1 a), b) and c).

Acceptance without a DES is the sole decision of the Institution and Post-Secondary Services is not responsible for providing upgrading courses to meet the acceptance requirements of the selected program.

3.4. Other Conditions / work

Students are allowed to take up part-time work while being sponsored. However, since students are sponsored on a "Full-Time" student status, it is their responsibility to ensure that the majority of their time is spent attending to their studies. It is also their responsibility to remain in good standing with their Institution, despite working at the same time.

4.0 APPLICATION PROCEDURE

⁴ See section 6.10 a)

⁵ However, when arrangements for reimbursement are made with Post-Secondary Services, the student may become eligible

⁶ Including on-line courses

- 5.8. When the student lives with a non-dependent spouse who is working full-time with a revenue equivalent to 50% of the Low Income Line as defined in 2.1 h), the spouse shall assume 50% of the rent and utilities (heat, hydro) as well as 50% of the baby-sitting fees that would be eligible for KI sponsorship.
- 5.9. When 2 sponsored students are sharing an apartment, both names must appear on the lease and living expenses are divided equally⁸. However, each student is entitled to full benefits regarding moving and furniture.
- 5.10. Unless otherwise specified, the student must submit the original receipt for any expense claimed under this Policy.

6.0 AREAS OF ASSISTANCE FOR FULL-TIME STUDENTS

6.1 Application Fees

Application fees to Recognized Institutions are paid or reimbursed in full but for a maximum of 2 applications per year (per level of study).

6.2 Tuition Fees and Registration Fees

- a) Tuition and registration fees will be paid in full for students registered full-time at a Recognized Institution;
- b) Tuition will be paid only for those courses, which are officially listed as requirements by the Post-Secondary Institution for the completion of the program of study;
- c) Other courses may be approved by the Director of Post-Secondary Services. In this case, the student must first consult with his KI Post-Secondary Counsellor and this prior to register in the course;
- d) Any mandatory examination fees required to be able to practice in the field of studies are also eligible for sponsorship (nurses, lawyers, etc.).

6.3. Books, Equipment & Supplies

- a) The cost of books and equipment⁹ which are officially listed as requirements by the Institution for completion of the program of study will be paid in full¹⁰;
- b) A lump sum is provided each semester for consumable school supplies such as pencils, paper and other similar objects (no receipt required);

6.4 Internet and Telephone Fees for students

The following fees are eligible for funding up to the maximum established by KI:

- a) Internet upon submission of an invoice under the name of the student;
- b) Telephone fees on a monthly basis (no receipt required).

6.5 Tutorial Assistance

Students are entitled to tutoring up to one hour per week, per course. Additional hours may be approved by the Director but, prior to receiving extra tutoring hours, the Counselor from Post-Secondary Services must assess the need and have approval from the Director. The

⁸ See section 6.9 d) for more details

⁹ Including tools and special clothing

¹⁰ However, rentals of equipment might have to be considered if appropriate

KI Post-Secondary Counsellor can arrange for tutorial services. If needed, a form must be completed to receive reimbursement or payment of tutoring.

6.6 Transportation

To the Home Community

- a) Students and their dependents are entitled to a return trip by the most direct and economical route between the student's home community and the area of the Institution attended as follows:

- at the beginning and end of each school year
- at Christmas
- at Spring Break or at another time as determined by Post-Secondary Services.

Necessary taxi expenses to and from the airport will be reimbursed upon presentation of receipts.

KI shall not prepay nor reimburse expenses incurred for excess baggage;

- b) With the prior approval of the Director, students and their dependents may receive an additional return trip in cases of emergency related to the death of immediate family members (spouse, child, father, mother, brother, sister, grandparents and grandchildren);
- c) To permit the student to attend an exam or an entrance interview or classification in a Post-Secondary Institution, KI may provide a trip, but only if the said exam or interview is scheduled more than two weeks prior to the beginning of classes. A return trip (without dependents) will be provided from the student's home community to the closest location of the exam;
- d) Transportation benefits are not transferable and must be taken within the same school year, after what they are deemed forfeited;
- e) Subject to section 6.10.3, students returning home must do so within 3 days of completing a semester or discontinuing their studies.
- f) Any changes to confirmed reservations that entail additional costs will be charged to the student unless due to unforeseen circumstances.

Daily transportation at the locale of study

- g) Funds for bus or train passes which are required for daily transportation in the area of the Institution will be provided for the student and their dependents. In the event that a student is unable to access public transportation, other economical and practical methods will be considered.

Change of destinations

6.6.1 The Director may authorize, no more than once a year, a student to travel to a Nunavik community other than his community of departure. The request must be for valid reasons and submitted with the travel request. If this change incurs expenses exceeding what it would have cost to travel to the original point of departure, the student will however have to assume or reimburse these additional expenses. Arrangements can be made with Post-Secondary

Services to recuperate these additional costs from the living allowance, make the appropriate deductions, etc.

6.7 Cargo

Students and their dependents are entitled to a cargo allowance for transportation of personal effects once at the beginning and once at the end of the Sponsorship Program and as follows:

- a) students and their dependent(s) of 12 years old and over: 135 kg each;
- b) dependent(s) between 2 and 11 years old: 90 kg each;
- c) dependent(s) under 2 years old: 45 kg each.

6.8 Daycare and Babysitting

When required and necessary, Students may be entitled to reimbursement of daycare or babysitting fees of a dependent child as follows, for services provided by a person not residing with the student.

The reimbursement of these fees is subject to section 5.8, where a non-dependent spouse might have to contribute.

Public and subsidized

- a) A maximum daily amount as established by law is paid for public day care and subsidized home care for each child;

Private home day care

- b) A maximum amount as determined by KI for eligible dependent children is paid for private home day care;

Babysitting

- c) When a student has classes while his school-age child(ren) does not have classes, babysitting fees are paid or reimbursed according to the rates established above.

Receipts must be submitted.

Moreover, the above allowance may also be provided under the same conditions for the summer camp of dependent children.

Other situations may require a student to request additional funds under the terms of this section, which may be granted if deemed appropriate upon authorization of the Director.

6.9 Living Allowance

- a) Food, lodging, local travel, tuition, recreation, etc. are essentially covered under the sponsorship agreement; any other sources of income from employment or government agencies must be declared by the student at the time of application. This income will be considered in computing the student's living allowance. Scholarships, bursaries and or awards are not considered in computing the student's living allowance;
- b) Income earned or assistance provided by a student's spouse, dependents, or other relatives are not considered in determining the sponsorship of the student except for the "Lodging";
- c) Allowances will not be provided for "part-time" students or fully employed students. However, their costs of tuition, books and supplies will be provided upon successful completion of the course, unless the student receives funds for these expenses from other sources;

- d) Sponsored students living at home with their parents in the area of the Institution are entitled to:
- i. room and board allowance
 - ii. pocket money
 - iii. personal care items
 - iv. phone
 - v. the internet (the invoice must be under the student's name)
 - vi. bus or train passes as per section 6.6.

6.10 Lodging

6.10.1 Student Residence¹¹

First year students without dependent may have to stay in the student residence where available¹² and as determined by Post-Secondary Services. Should there be a waiting list, Post-Secondary Services will arrange for short-term temporary accommodation.

6.10.2 Apartment

Students with dependent(s) and students not subject to 6.10.1 are entitled to a furnished apartment under the following conditions.

Montreal area / KI arrangements

Within the Montreal area, where the majority of students are studying, a student eligible to an apartment has the following options:

KI leased apartment

- a) Post-Secondary Services may organize the arrangements signs the lease, provides the services of transportation of personal effect, etc.; students will be presented with 2 options of areas to be housed upon acceptance of their sponsorship. Post-Secondary Services will consider their preferred area when assigning apartments;

Opt out provision

- b) A student eligible to an apartment may opt out from this provision by making his own arrangements for lodging and by notifying PSSS before May 1st. In such situation, he may benefit from funding up to the applicable CMHC rate + %10 in the area of the apartment (see Annex D);

By opting out, the student relinquishes his rights from all housing services provided by KI and will not be eligible to benefits such as KI furniture, household supplies, storage of furniture, etc. However, the student may receive an allowance:

- i. for the purchase of furniture and household supplies up to an amount determined by KI; this allowance is paid only once but a student who is returning after an interruption of studies may be eligible a second time, when a period of 5 years has elapsed since he received the first allowance. If the return following an interruption occurs before the 5 year period, the student could keep the receipts and claim the allowance once the 5 year period has elapsed.

¹¹ See definition in 2.1 m)

¹² And if the student also meets the criteria of eligibility of the said residence

When housing is organized and arranged by Post-Secondary Services, no pets are allowed in the apartments, even if the building rules are to the contrary and are allowing it.

6.11 Recreational Activities

This benefit is designed to encourage students and their dependents to participate in extracurricular activities while at the same time achieving good academic results. The funds may be used either by the sponsored student or by his dependents. The student will be reimbursed up to a maximum of $250.00 annually in addition to $100 for each dependent. Original receipts are required and must be submitted to Post-Secondary Services.

6.12 Other activities related to the program of study

Students are entitled to a funding up to $500 per academic year to participate or attend activities that are organized by their Institution and which are related to their program of study.

7.0 SPONSORSHIP LIMITATIONS

7.1 Length of Study

- a) While adhering to all the applicable sponsorship regulations and conditions set out in this document, the total sponsorship provided to an individual student shall not exceed the time limits as set in article d) below;
- b) A “Student Month” is the unit of measure for budgetary and sponsorship limitations purposes. It is a month in which a student has received educational sponsorship, under the terms of this Sponsorship Program in order to attend on a full-time basis a Recognized Institution. For part-time students, each full-credit course will count for two “student months”;
- c) The number of “student months” will vary according to the length of a particular program of study. In exceptional circumstances, students may be provided with additional student months. This must be approved by the Director;
- d) The following are the maximum number of “student months” of sponsorship which may be provided to complete these post-secondary education levels:

1. Community College or C.E.G.E.P. etc.:	40 student months
2. CEGEP 3-year Technical program:	60 student months
3. Bachelor’s Degree (3 yr program):	40 student months
4. Bachelor’s Degree (4 yr program):	48 student months
5. Master’s Degree or Equivalent:	24 student months
6. Doctorate (Ph.D.):	60 student months

7.2 Summer Sponsorship

Currently sponsored students will be sponsored for study during the summer months if they meet the following criteria

- a) it allows them to complete their program of study at the end of the summer session;
- or
- b) it is a requirement of their program which is running through the summer;
- or
- c) they require prerequisite courses for a program of study, which commences immediately following the summer session in question and cannot be taken in the following academic year;

or

- d) the student must wait for his dependent children to complete their current school year.

8.0 STUDENTS RESPONSIBILITIES

8.1 Courses

Students must:

- a) attend all classes in the program in which they are registered and make every effort to succeed in their studies in order to maintain their sponsorship:
 - College level students must be registered as full-time students and meet the requirements of the Institution (students passing less than 4 courses will normally be put on probation by the Institution)
 - University level students must successfully complete 12 credits per semester or 24 credits overall per year in order to maintain their sponsorship for the following semester;
- b) adhere to the rules, regulations and conditions of the Post-Secondary Institution they are attending;
- c) maintain a regular contact with the student counselor assigned to them by Post-Secondary Services. The nature and regularity of this contact will be established in the beginning of the school year with the student's counselor;
- d) attend all study and tutoring sessions that have been organized for them;
- e) inform their Post-Secondary Services counselor of a course change, a course drop or a program change before proceeding with the change;
- f) successfully complete their semesters as per article 8.1a). After an incomplete or unsuccessful semester (namely where the Institution does not allow the student to continue studying), the student will be required to wait a minimum of one semester and submit a new sponsorship request.

8.2 Student Residence

Students living in a residence must adhere to the rules and conditions established for that residence. Students who neglect or disregard this responsibility may affect their sponsorship under the terms of this Policy. The student may be held responsible for any costs incurred for damages he would have caused.

8.3 Students Living in Apartments

- a) Students must adhere to the rules, regulations and conditions outlined in the lease of the apartment. It is the responsibility of the students to familiarize themselves with the lease and its conditions.
- d) Allowances for students living in apartments will be determined according to KI's "Allowances for Post-Secondary Students".
- c) Students must demonstrate responsibility in caring for the basic furnishings and other items, which are provided with the apartment. Students who neglect or disregard this responsibility may affect their sponsorship under the terms of this policy and may be held responsible for costs incurred due to damages.

- d) Apartments are provided as accommodation for the exclusive use of the students and their dependents and must not be used for any other purpose. Moreover, for housing organized and arranged by Post-Secondary Services, the student shall ask in writing an authorization from the Director, in order to allow any guest to stay more than a week in his apartment.

9.0 RESPONSIBILITY OF POST-SECONDARY SERVICES

9.1 Specific Responsibilities

Post-Secondary Services will:

- a) follow-up and evaluate each request for sponsorship under this Sponsorship Program;
- b) provide academic, career, and personal counselling to sponsored students and their dependents;
- c) facilitate the adaptation of sponsored students to their new environment through academic placement, choice of educational program, tutoring, accommodation, etc.;
- d) establish and maintain a communication network between KI and various contact persons in educational Institutions and organizations involved in the advancement of the students;
- e) serve as post-secondary resource centre for any Inuit beneficiary as well as anybody of the KI education network in Nunavik ;
- f) carry out any other relevant activity considered necessary for the successful operation of the Post-Secondary Sponsorship Program.

10.0 INCENTIVES FOR POST-GRADUATE STUDIES

As an incentive, KI allocates an amount of:

- a) $1,300 for every student who receives a degree at the Bachelor's level;
- b) $2,000 for every student who receives a degree at the Master's level;
- c) $4,000 for every student who receives a degree at the Ph.D. level.

11.0 APPEAL PROCEDURE

Should a student be convinced that sections of this Sponsorship Program have not been fairly applied to his situation, he must first address the issue with the Director of Post-Secondary Services within 15 days of the decision he wishes to appeal.

If after this review the student still believes that sections of this sponsorship program other than sections 3.1d), 4.1 and 7 have not been fairly applied to his situation, he may submit his case to an Appeal Board within 30 days of the decision made by the Director. Sections 3.1d), 4.1 and 7 are not subject to an appeal and are final.

- a) The KI Executive Committee shall serve as the Appeal Board. The composition of the Appeal Board may be changed with the approval of the Council of Commissioners;
- b) The student must submit his request in writing to the Assistant Director General with a summary of his case. The Assistant Director General assess the request to ensure it meets the criteria in which, it will be submitted to the Appeal Board;
- c) In cases involving termination of sponsorship, the student shall have the option to be heard by the Appeal Board to explain his appeal (by phone or otherwise, if deemed appropriate);
- d) The decision of the Appeal Board is to be consistent with the Sponsorship Program policies and requirements and is final and binding.

12.0 ABSENCE OF RESPONSIBILITY OF KATIVIK ILISARNILIRINIQ

KI, its employees, representatives and officers are not responsible for any loss, damage or injury suffered by any student or a dependent either before, during or after his enrolment in the Sponsorship Program, whether residing in one of the residences sponsored by KI or elsewhere.

The disclaimer attached, as Annex A must be signed in every instance of sponsorship.

13.0 FINAL PROVISIONS

13.1. KI may terminate the funding of a student at any time in the case of a false declaration, fraud or for non-respect of the conditions applicable to the Sponsorship Program.

13.2. The taxation acts require that KI issues at the end of each calendar year, a statement of income (T4-A and Relevé 1) for any taxable benefits granted.

All trips made by the student and his dependent(s) are taxable at the federal level but not at the provincial level.

The student has to include such benefit on his income tax report.

13.3. In exceptional circumstances, the Director may authorize the reimbursement of reasonable expenses not otherwise covered by this Policy if justified, necessary and if in accordance with the objectives of the Sponsorship Program.

Excerpt from the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement and its Complementary Agreements (JBNQA) / paragraphs 3.2.4, 3.2.5 and 3.2.6

3.2.4 A person shall be entitled to be enrolled as a beneficiary under the Agreement and be entitled to benefit therefrom if on November 15, 1974 he or she was:

- a) a person of Inuit ancestry who was born in Quebec or is ordinarily resident in Quebec or, if not ordinarily resident in the Territory, is recognized as a member thereof, by one of the Inuit communities, or
- b) a person of Inuit ancestry who is recognized by one of the Inuit communities as having been on such date a member thereof, or
- c) the adopted child of a person described in sub-paragraph a) or b).

3.2.5 On or after November 16, 1974, a person is entitled to be enrolled as a beneficiary under the Agreement and entitled to benefit therefrom, if he or she is:

- a) a person who is a legitimate or illegitimate descendant in the male or female line of a person entitled to be enrolled pursuant to paragraphs 3.2.4 or 3.2.6
- b) the adopted child of a person described in paragraph 3.2.4 or sub-paragraphs 3.2.5 a) provided such child is a minor at the time of the adoption;
- c) the lawful spouse of a person described in paragraph 3.2.4 or sub-paragraphs 3.2.5 a) or b) or paragraph 3.2.6.

3.2.6 After six months following the posting of the official lists referred to in sub-paragraph 3.3.6 b), an Inuit community may, from time to time, at its discretion, direct the Secretary General to enroll as a beneficiary under the Agreement and as a person entitled to benefit therefrom a person who is of Inuit ancestry provided such person:

- a) was born in Quebec, or
- b) is ordinarily resident in the Territory, and
- c) he or she would have been entitled to be enrolled with his or her descendants pursuant to paragraphs 3.2.4 or 3.2.5 but, through inadvertence or otherwise, was omitted from the official lists of beneficiaries prepared in accordance with paragraph 3.3.6.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not prevent any person omitted from the official lists of beneficiaries prepared in accordance with paragraph 3.3.6 from exercising his right to appeal pursuant to Sub-Section 3.4.

Annex D

POST-SECONDARY SERVICES – ACCEPTANCE and OPT OUT FORM HOUSING SERVICES

(to be completed before May 1st)

As a student eligible to lodging benefits under the Kativik Ilisarniliriniq (KI) Sponsorship Program, I am making the following choice, based on the criteria of eligibility provided in the Post-Secondary Education Sponsorship Program Policy.

OPTION 1:

Student accepts available housing provided by KI Post-Secondary Services

Available housing is as follows:

- a) Student residence(s) where available:
- b) Furnished KI apartments for the Montreal area and for students with dependents or students who may be deemed eligible in accordance with the Policy:

OPTION 2:

Student opts out as per Article 6.10.2 of the Policy and agree to the following:

- the eligible rental allocation will be up to the maximum of the average rental rate established by the Canadian Mortgage and Housing Corporation at the place of rental + 10%;
- he/she has his/her own lease or accommodation;
- no furnishings and/or household supplies are furnished by KI;
- an amount will be covered for moving his/her furniture but only once at the beginning of the opt out and once at the end.
- The student may be eligible for half rent during the summer as per the conditions established in the Policy. Letter of employment, start & end date are required.

I, _____ have duly read & chosen the following housing
Student's name

option for the academic year 20____ - 20____ and I:

- Accept KI's Housing Offer (Option 1)
- Refuse KI's Housing Offer (Option 1) and would like to opt out of the housing provisions (Option 2)

I also agree that if I have a spouse who is working full-time with a revenue equivalent to 50% of the Low Income Line as defined in the Policy, that the cost of rent and utilities (heat, hydro) will be shared equally for any of the above options.
